With over 60 attorneys located in downtown Honolulu, Goodsill offers legal services to individuals and businesses in several areas of law, including business and securities transactions, banking and finance, real estate, tax, trusts and estates, public utilities, immigration, international transactions and civil litigation. Our attorneys have experience in mergers and acquisitions, environmental law matters, antitrust compliance, aviation and admiralty law, international trade, labor and employment, media, technology, entity formation and venture financing and health law.

Goodsill and its attorneys regularly receive professional awards and recognition from national and international organizations. Some recent recognition includes:

Goodsill’s role in the Hawaii community extends well beyond the courtroom and boardroom. The firm’s attorneys have served over the years as Governor of the State, Chief Justice and Associate Justice of the Hawaii Supreme Court and Chairman of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. In addition, Goodsill attorneys actively participate as volunteers and board members of local and national charitable and professional organizations and educational institutions, as well as governmental advisory boards.
