Founded in 1947, our firm offers legal solidity in the business environment based on extensive knowledge and experience in a large variety of local and international affairs:

- More than 60 years of experience
- Highest quality services based on ethical and professional standards
- Excellence in provision of services in corporate law and its more than 30 areas of specialization
- Almost 1000 active clients in the private sector, government organizations and non-profit organizations, with local and international investment
- More than 90 lawyers

We provide solutions for projects, challenges, inquiries, and obstacles often associated with complex structures and businesses, responding with creativity and efficacy and preventing future conflicts and contingencies.

The relationship with clients' and the service the firm offers are both identified by fundamental premises of knowledge, experience, commitment, efficiency, close collaboration and added value.

The partners have an extensive professional background and between 15 and 45 years of experience within Santamarina y Steta. A significant number of members of the firm have complemented their education at international law firms and universities abroad.

Santamarina y Steta is the Mexican member of various international alliances with other premier law firms, allowing it to offer a solid network without borders.
